ARRANGEMENTS FOR FUNERAL TO WILLIMANTIC. OF REV. HERBERT L. MITCHELL Case Continued Till Thursday-Bonds Burial in Portland Today-Leaves Wife and Three Children.

Captain Richmond of the Willimantic police force came here early Wednesday morning and took back with him on the $15 trolley John P. Moulton, who was arrested Tuesday night on Franklin square at the request of the Willimantic police, who had a complaint that Moulton had left Willimantic without settling a board bill at the Hooker house. The bill amounted to $17 and it was reported that Moulton registered in Willimantic as E. O. Mitchell.

Moulton wanted to argue the case with Chief Richmond here, but the Willimantic officer toid him to tell his story to the court. In the Willimantic bolice court Prosecutor Bugbee asked a continuance of the case until Thursday, as he was not ready to proceed. This was granted. Moulton claimed that he had not intended to defraud the hotel. He said he had the money to pay the bill and settle the matter, but the court continued the case and placed the bonds at $2,000. As he was unable to secure bonds he was placed in a cell. Moulton, it is said, has told some of his local friends that he is getting $20 a week for the rest of his life from his wife to enable her to get a divorce.

The votes of twenty-five people assembled in the town hall Wednesday evening for a special town meeting added a new school district to the town of Norwich-and authorized some changes in the road to Jewett City past the velvet mill, which were the matters contained in the warning for the meeting. First Selectman A. D. Lathrop called the meeting to order promptly at 8 o'clock and then turned it over to Attorney Albert J. Bailey, who is filling the office of town roun-sei while attorney A. A. Browning is away on his vacation.

Mr. Balley took the chair with a word or two expressing his pelasure at presiding. Clerk Charles S. Hol-brook read the warning, in which the first item of business was regarding the fixing of the school district relations of the territory in the town of Norwich which was recently a part of the Shetucket school district No. 5 of the town of Sprague, and bound-ed northerly, northeasterly and east-erly by the town of Sprague, the She-
